How to apply for a Leisure Program tutor position with SGSCC

St George and Sutherland Community College is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer, committed to diversity in the workplace and Work Health and Safety. SGSCC offers tutor opportunities on the basis of merit. The applicant considered to be the most capable of doing the job is selected. To decide this we look at qualifications, experience, skills, and personal qualities relevant to the position. Formal qualifications may not be necessary depending on the course.

The essential qualifications must be met if you are to fulfil the duties and responsibilities of the position. The desirable skills will assist you in the application.

Qualifications

Include copies of any relevant qualifications, certificates or licences you have. Do not send originals, but bring them along should you be granted an interview. Formal qualifications may not be necessary depending on the course.

If any of your qualifications are from overseas, include copies of all relevant qualifications in ENGLISH translation.

Field of Expertise

SGSCC works closely with the local community in providing relevant courses and training. Applicants must have direct experience in their area of expertise.

This means that you must demonstrate expertise in the designated area.

If you gained any of these skills or knowledge through voluntary or unpaid work, include them in your application.

Resume

Include a copy of your resume with your application.

Sending your application

You should send your application back to the College either electronically to enquiries@sgscc.edu.au or via post to Leisure Program PO Box 404 Jannali, 2226

The interview

If you are asked to attend an interview, someone will contact you and tell you when and where the interview will be. You may be asked to bring a portfolio, or samples of your works to the interview. You will also need to bring 100 points of ID to be sighted by SGSCC.

Becoming a tutor

Once SGSCC has established that it has the enrolment numbers to run your course/program then two (2) contracts will be sent to you. One should be signed by you and returned – the other is for your records.

- Preparation of resources (eg: handouts)
- Liaise with College staff (when appropriate)
- Observe the Work Health and Safety policy of the College
- Ensure the observance of appropriate safety, health, welfare, security and good housekeeping standards
- Initiate emergency/accident procedures in appropriate situations
- Report any incidents or accidents that occur
- Ensure participants give due care to the resources and facilities, and participate in maintaining an environment free from danger or abuse
- Comply with the requirements and regulations of appropriate legislation
- Advise and assist course participants in making them aware of the facilities the College provides
- Maintain professional development in your chosen field of expertise
- Attend tutor meetings (when requested)
- Report participant grievances using the College's documented grievance procedure
- Attend relevant workshops and professional development programs offered by the College
- Maintain an understanding of, and capacity to implement EEO, WHS, ethical practice, commitment to the principles of cultural diversity and other legislative requirements

Performance Review

Continued employment is based on satisfactory reviews and evaluation.

Remuneration

Tutors are employed under the guidelines of an Agreement.

Desirable teaching qualifications and experience

Leisure

Although it is desirable for these tutors to hold qualifications in teaching adults and/or the course of study to be taught, applicants without qualifications who can demonstrate sufficient knowledge, experience and communication skills to conduct a course may be employed.

Tutors must be able to demonstrate the experience and expertise necessary to enable delivery of training, and to ensure course outcomes are met.

Desirable skills

- Excellent communication skills

Employment Screening

Child Protection Legislation requires successful applicants in some courses to be subject to employment screening, including a criminal and/or child protection record check prior to be offered employment. If this is required applications will not be considered without the necessary documentation being sighted.

Arrival

You are required to arrive to the classroom at least 10 minutes prior to commencement of training and ensure that the room is set up in such a way that is conducive to effective adult learning. Please do not leave classes unattended.

Dress Code

All tutors are required to wear appropriate attire whilst presenting courses or at any time when representing SGSCC for any other purpose.

Confidentiality

All participant details are confidential and remain the property of SGSCC.

Course Outline

On submission of a course proposal, applicants are required to provide a course outline, providing objectives, content, strategies and resources for the proposed course. (See attached)

Lesson Plan (Session Plans)

A lesson plan is an essential piece of equipment for the tutor. It serves to guide the session in correct sequence and ensures that all relevant material is covered during the lesson. It is expected that tutors will prepare lesson plans for the course being delivered.

The use of a lesson plan will:

- Give participants a clear idea of what they will be doing
- Clearly outlines the methods and activities you will use
- Provide a record of the training
- Be useful if another trainer needs to take over
- Provides a starting point if you need to train another participant

The key features of a lesson plan are:

- A lesson title
- Lesson learning outcomes clearly stated (what will they learn)
- Total lesson time
- List of new terms
- Potential problems to be aware of
- A need for the student to know (relevance)
- Review notes from the previous lesson
- Content of lesson
- Method of presentation (training technique to be used)
- Participant activities
- Resources (aids) required for the lesson
- Appropriate timing for each segment
- Key questions to be asked
- A link forward to the next session

Course Outline

Please provide an outline of the course- add or delete sessions if required (dot points are sufficient)

- Notes: Objectives the learning outcomes or what participants can expect to achieve - these should be stated in specific and measurable terms
Content list the actual topics covered
Strategies how will you deliver the content? (eg: brief lecture, brainstorming, small group discussion, hands-on learning)
Resources what materials and equipment will be required? (eg: whiteboard, handouts, dvd etc)
