Procrastinating Writers – Procrastinate No More
Are you a ‘non-practising’ writer? Has a lack of time, energy or self-belief stopped you from starting and completing your writing project? Are you trapped within a writer’s block or stuck writing/re-writing the same old chapter? Importantly, have you noticed how discipline alone will not help? Whatever your writing issue, you are not alone; many writers both amateur and professional feel the same level of frustration when not able to follow through with a promise to them self, and/or others, to ‘write their book’, ‘tell their story’ or create their family history. Whether you are writing for fun or serious profit, come along and learn innovative tools and techniques to loosen up ingrained perfectionism, harness more time and create a masterpiece or ‘mini-piece’ for your awaiting audience.

Trainer’s Name: Carolyn
What do you like best about working at SGSCC? I love working at SGSCC because the staff genuinely care about the students. The College is constantly improving and expanding, always seeking ways to better serve the students and community. I enjoy working with the huge variety of students at SGSCC including those studying formal qualifications and those learning specific skills in short courses. I love working with the students as they are all there to gain confidence, learn new skills and educate themselves in a supportive environment.
